MEDIA ADVISORY

INVITATION TO NATIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION MEDIA ENGAGEMENT

7 April 2022 - The third National Planning Commission (NPC) held its first lekgotla on 17-18 March following its five-year appointment by President Cyril Ramaphosa in December 2021. The NPC is an independent advisory body and think-tank established through the revised Green Paper: National Planning Commission of 2010. During the lekgotla, the NPC considered its strategic plan, priorities and the actions required to facilitate the implementation of the National Development Plan (NDP).

The NPC hereby invites members of the media to a briefing where the Commissioners will unpack the mandate, priorities and work programme emanating from the lekgotla as it seeks to rally all South Africans behind the NDP: Vision 2030 and its slogan, "Our Future, make it work".

The programme of the day includes an address by NPC Chairperson Minister Mondli Gungubele and Deputy Chairperson Professor Tinyiko Maluleke supported by members of the Commission followed by a Q&A session.
