

The National Planning
Commission invites you to a

DIALOGUE ON ELECTORAL REFORM AND THE FUTURE OF DEMOCRACY IN SOUTH AFRICA

The National Development Plan (NDP) proposes the building of a Capable and Developmental State as a critical enabler in achieving the country's developmental goals. Therefore, in achieving the goals of a Developmental State, a truly democratic culture, encompassed by free and fair elections is fundamental in achieving the country's developmental goals.

In view of the President signing into law the Electoral Amendment Act 1 of 2023, the National Planning Commission (NPC) in its advisory role necessitates a discussion on the future impacts of the electoral reforms in South Africa and their impact beyond 2024.
