

National Planning Summit

Date: 29 September 2023
Venue: Protea Hotel Midrand

1. INTRODUCTION

As part of building a capable and developmental state, the NPC, in partnership with the DPME, hosted a National Planning Summit on 29 September 2023 under the theme: 'Long-term Planning in South Africa: A Call to Action'.

2. OVERVIEW

The objective was to explore concrete examples of approaches to effective long-term planning to improve the implementation of the NDP. The summit brought together a diverse group of stakeholders, including government officials, who focused on international, national, provincial, and local spheres responsible for planning functions and shared their experiences and knowledge about long-term planning, and planning ecosystems that are geared towards creating a developmental state. The countries represented included the Copenhagen Consensus Centre, Nigeria, Germany, Namibia, and South Africa.

3. CONCLUSION

The Summit explored concrete approaches to effective long-term planning to improve the implementation of the National Development Plan: Vision 2030.

Vision 2030: Our Future, Make it Work