

NPC COMMUNICATION AND STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

The National Planning Commission (NPC) is currently embarking on communication and stakeholder engagements till the end of its term in March 2021. This engagement will provide an opportunity for social partners and the broader public to interact with NPC's various research outputs, its positions and views on key issues pertaining to the development of the country and improved implementation of the NDP.

It will also be an opportunity for the NPC to engage with you on some of the work that has been undertaken in the last five years. For instance, the deepening of development planning priorities within government and various sectors of society, analysing implementation of the NDP and resource allocations to ensure that these link with the parameters of the NDP and highlighting gaps, advances and blockages.

The purpose of this engagement will be to share the experience, observations, insights and the recommendations that the commission has on how the country continues to pursue objectives of the NDP.
